

A rare wedding theme for those who love the color blue

June 8, 2010 by Jennifer
Filed under News

Here is an interesting article about a blue wedding theme, source: projectwedding.com, title: A Blue Wedding.

Having a blue wedding is sometimes tricky to coordinate because very few flowers come in a shade of blue. When all the blue elements of a wedding come together, however, the effects can be absolutely beautiful.

The bride, Vera, was kind enough to share her story...

After eight years of courtship, the proposal happened during a Tahoe trip while we stopped at the Danner Summit for a short hike. No flower, no down on one knee and we even got lost finding our way back to the car (oops!) but it was the most perfect proposal. (And the most perfect engagement ring!)

BLUE WEDDING all the way! I want the wedding to reflect our personality and have these elements – Chic, Crystal and Branches. Working for a florist as part time designer really helped to extend my overall vision since I have opportunities to observe many amazing weddings on site. My florist's design has far exceeded my expectation and everything else just came together flawlessly.

Photographer – Atelier Photography SF, Principal Karl Ko

Florist – Floral Design Studio, Nona

Hair and makeup – Giao Nguyen Makeup Artistry & Hair Design

Cake – Cake Delight

Copyright © 2011 · All Rights Reserved · Wedding by Wedding Planning Membership Site

